The specifics of the plan were released. 1,200 National Guard Troops deploying to four border states on August 1st. This is all part of a push to amp up security. 524 troops are scheduled for Arizona, 224 for California, 250 to Texas, 72 to New Mexico and 130 troops assigned to a national liaison office. In addition, the President, also commanding 300 Customs and Border Protection Agents to the Tucson area. As for the troops, they will be armed, but are being instructed only to use their weapons to protect themselves.
Border/ Immigration	News 4 @ 10	7/28/10	10:04:06 to 10:06:46		SB1070 took effect 7/29/10 without some key provisions. A federal judge block the most controversial sections of that law. Her ruling has some celebrating and others preparing for an appeal. The changes made that were made; police will not be required to check a person's immigration status while enforcing other laws. The judge also blocked officers from making warrantless arrests of suspected illegal immigrants. The judge also delayed the part that would have immigrants to carry their papers at all times, and blocked a portion that made it illegal for undocumented workers to solicit employment in public places.
Border/ Immigration	News 4 @ 10	8/30/10	10:00:10 to 10:02:35		There are now National Guard Troops along the Arizona-Mexico border. A group of 30 was deployed on 8/30. The first of 532 troops that'll come, in waves, over the next month. Part of President Obama's order, for 1200 troops in our southwest border states. They will be armed for protection but can't arrest anyone. Instead, they'll work in close contact with Border Patrol Agents.

Crime & Law Enforcement	News 4 @ 10	7/3/10	10:00:58 to 10:04:56		In December 2009, a woman wanted in connection to a murder for hire plot, in Tucson, was arrested in Austria. Detectives have been working since then to extradite Pam Phillips to Tucson. Friday, July 2nd, it happened. Phillips was escorted off a flight from Austria by US Marshalls, local law enforcement and detectives who've been working this case from day 1. Phillips is facing first degree murder in connection to the car-bombing death of Gary Triano that happened in 1996 at the La Paloma Country Club. Detectives said she hired her ex-boyfriend, Ronald Young, to kill Triano to cash in on his 2M life insurance policy. Young was convicted and is currently serving out two life sentences, and Phillips is at the Pima County Jail being held on 5M dollar bond.
Crime & Law Enforcement	News 4 @ 5	7/8/10	5:01:21 to 5:03:16		Tucson Police has added a new tool to their crime fighting bag. You could say it's a cyber neighborhood watch. It's called "Crime Reports" and it lets you know what kind of crimes are occurring in your area or where they're happening. The new system not only tracks crimes, it also sends alerts to your computer.
Crime & Law Enforcement	News 4 @ 6	7/15/10	6:03:31 to 6:05:45		With triple digit temps, the desert is dry so the fire danger is high. The risk of wildfires is just one reason the City of Tucson is working to restrict a new state law that legalizes the sale of certain fireworks. The new state law takes effect December 1st. At that time, anyone 16-years of age or older will be allowed to buy so-called consumer fireworks. However, you may not be able to shoot them off within Tucson city limits.
Crime & Law Enforcement	News 4 @ 5	8/10/10	5:12:56 to 5:14:41		Tucson Police have a new tool to help keep bicycle riders and pedestrians safe. Cold hard cash. Grant money has more officers hitting the streets. The Governor's Office of Highway Safety gave the Tucson Police Department a 44K grant.

Safety	News 4 @ 10	8/30/10	10:07:29 to 10:09:33		ATV's are a dangerous popularity in Arizona. The fun comes at a cost. ATV accidents are spiking and that's causing a concern. At the UMC, the number of ATV injuries per year has more than tripled in just the past few years. Dr. O'Keefe wanted you to know why. He did a study on the behaviors that lead to ATV crashes. A lot of people ride without helmets, without protective equipment, and no training which can potentially be a deadly mistake. Another thing to think about, UMC said its average hospital cost for an ATV crash is $35,000 dollars.
Safety	News 4 @ 4	9/10/10	4:49:25 to 4:52:35		What do you do if you're a working parent, and your kids get out of school before you get home? You can't leave a key under the mat anymore. Keith Duncan, with Duncan Insurance Agency, share some ideas on what to do.
Safety	Tucson Today 5a to 7a	9/20/10	6:31:50 to 6:33:56		A new piece of technology at the University of Arizona is turning heads and literally slowing traffic. The crosswalk located near Mountain and 1st had lights installed that are powered by the sun. They illuminate the crosswalk making it a safer place to cross. The pilot project is efficient in more ways than one, it didn't cost the university a cent, lights and labor donated. The best reward of all, a safer way to cross the street.
Safety	News 4 @ 4	9/23/10	4:43:31 to 4:46:41	Keith Duncan, Duncan Insurance Agency	Staying safe while driving... Distracted driving is a big problem in the U.S., and there is something you can do to keep yourself and those around you safe. Keith Duncan, with Duncan Insurance Agency, told us about a new national public awareness campaign about the dangers of texting while driving.
